

UNIT 2
READING

READING SKILLS

Learning Activity 3

ACTIVITY 1

PREVIEWING AND SKIMMING

In three (3) minutes, preview and skim the extracts of the newspaper article below and discuss what the article is about. The extracts are chunks from a longer text.

Political scandal overshadows South Korea 2018 Olympic prep

BY AP - 8 FEBRUARY 2017 @ 8:52 AM

SEOUL: When Pyeongchang was awarded the 2018 Olympics six years ago, many South Koreans felt that the first Winter Games on home snow would herald their entry into the top tier of rich nations.

One year before the Olympics, however, the country is in political disarray, and winter sports are the last thing on many people's minds. To say that South Koreans are distracted from what had been billed as a crowning

"AN ADVANCED NATION"

Even with the political mess, there are still high hopes for the second Olympics to be held in South Korea, whose capital, Seoul, hosted the 1988 Summer Games.

SCANDAL

The Pyeongchang Olympics, like much else in South Korea, have been drawn into the country's biggest political scandal in decades.

Taken from NST Online,
(2017, February 8)

ACTIVITY 2

SCANNING

Scan the Kuantan map and answer the questions that follow.

Question	Answer
Which is the southernmost hotel?
Which road should we take to go to the airport?
Where is the mosque situated?	