1.1. Introduction and the objectives

- Halal is a Quranic word meaning lawful or permitted. In reference to food, it is the dietary standard, as prescribed in the Quran the Muslim scripture. General Quranic guidance dictates that all foods are Halal except those that are specifically mentioned as Haram (unlawful or Prohibited).
- The life of a Muslim revolves around the concept of Halal. A Muslim must earn income from Halal sources, be involved only in Halal transactions and consume Halal food and drink.
- All foods are made lawful according to Muslim Scripture, The Glorious Qur-an;
- O ye who believe! Eat of the good things wherewith We have provided you and render thanks to Allah, if it is He whom we worship (Qur-an Chapter II Verse 172).

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُوا مِن طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِلَّهِ إِن كُنتُمْ إِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ

- يا أيها الرسل كلوا من الطيبات واعملوا صالحا إني بما تعملون عليم

CONCEPTUALIZATION OF SUBJECT MATTER

Concept of Halal & Haram in Islam?

Bob: Tell me why is it that a Muslim is very particular about the words Halaal and Haraam; what do they mean?

Yunus: That which is permissible is termed Halaal and that which is not permissible is termed Haraam and it is the Quran and the traditions of the Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon Him) which draws the distinction between the two.

HALAL TERMS

- Ḥalāl (Arabic: حلال ḥalāl, 'permissible') or halal[1] is any object or an action which is permissible to use or engage in, according to Islamic law.
- The word derives from (حل) which means lawful
- The term covers and designates not only food and drink but also all matters of daily life.
- the root H-L-L in Arabic, which has the meanings of "loosening and untying in addition to permitting and occupying (a space)".
