

Chapter 8(a) Perfect Human Insan Kamil

by Hasmadi bin Hassan
PBMSK
hasmadi@ump.edu.my

- Insan Kamil originally from Arabic, that is from two words: Insan and Kamil. Literally, Insan means human, and Kamil means perfect. Thus, Insan Kamil means perfect human.

Characteristics of Insan Kamil

a) Mind functioning optimally

- Optimal functioning of mind to know that all good works as a fair, honest, moral right to life as a man. The human mind works are in duty bound to do good deeds to reach perfect human level. Thus, a perfect human mind can recognize good deeds and bad deeds because it was contained in the meaning of the act.

b) Functioning intuition

- Insan Kamil can also be characterized with the functioning of intuition that was in him. He said if the effect in humans is the human soul, then the person is almost like an angel which mean approaching perfection.

c) Capable to Create Culture

- the perfect human being are capable of being used all spiritual potential optimally. Such properties are not owned by others. Because of the thinking abilities, they are not only makes life, but also pay attention to the various ways in order to obtain the meaning of life. The processes of this kind of birth of civilization. But the completeness and perfection of human beings are not born with it alone, but through a certain process. The process is today known as evolution.

d) Self adorned with Divine Attributes

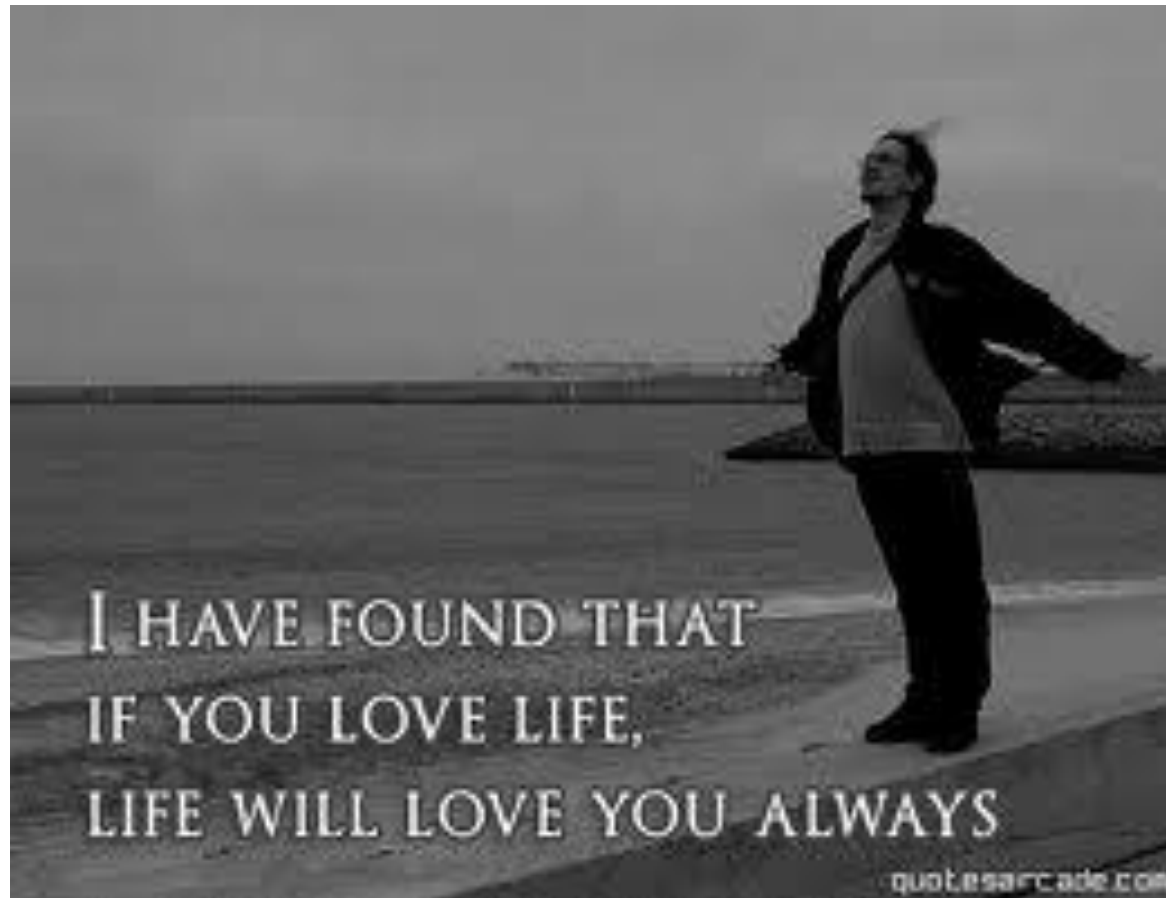

- In the description of the meaning of the above mentioned people have mentioned that people have a divine nature (fitrah). They tend to the things that come from God, and obey. These properties lead them to be a representative of God on earth. Man as the caliph is the ideal picture, who try to determine its own destiny, both as communities and as individuals. It is people who have great responsibility, because it has its free will.

f) Balanced spirited

- That aspect of human nature lies in its depth, which is permanent, immortal now inexistence as part of an extremely long journey of his life. But unfortunately, most of them will forget the essential immortality of him earlier. Modern man ignores the most basic needs, which are ruhiyah (spiritual), so they will not get peace of mind, even more when the pressure of material needs increase, then the balance would be further damaged.

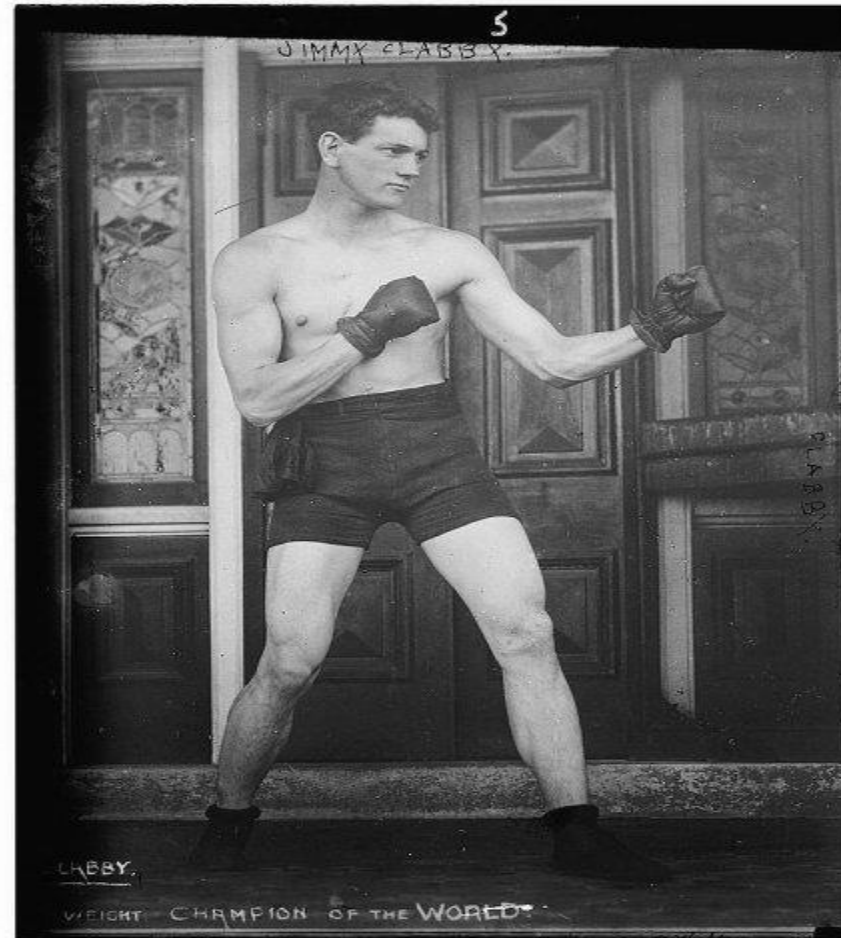

1) In love with life and unafraid of death

2) Have a powerful sexual drive uncomplicated by guilt, blame, or shame

3) Have a perfect lean hunter-gatherer body, and a level of physicality capable of great athleticism, tremendous energy, and a deep sensuality.

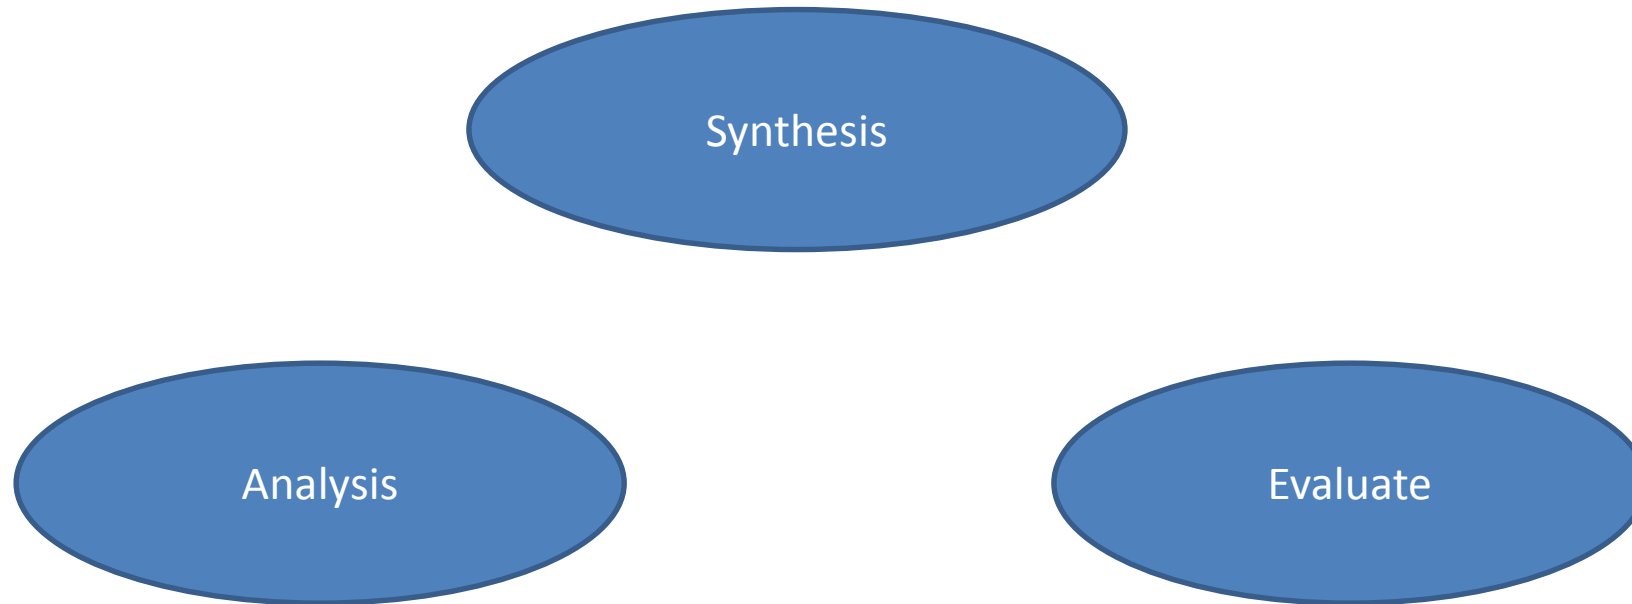

4) An open, loving heart capable of deep and lasting commitment to a partner.

5) A lifelong thirst for understanding, unending education. The drive to share and advance knowledge.

6) A keen intellect, capable of synthesizing information from a wide range of sources.

7) A sense of connectedness to the entire universe.

INSAN KAMIL (PERFECT PERSON)

- Characteristic of a perfect person:
 - Matured in thinking
 - Respect others especially elders
 - Always talk politely
 - Good and clean attire
 - Good speaking skills
 - No bad habits
 - Always close to religion
 - Never critics others
 - Always think positively