

Assessment of lesson 2:

1. What do you need to do to ensure you conduct the proper research processes?
2. What are the sequences of research processes?
3. Think on one topic that you like based on the problem identification and identify the variables that lean one to another. After that you are required to visualize it using theoretical framework concept.
4. Based on the theoretical framework that you have designed please state the hypothesis properly.