Exercise –State Transition Test Case Design

Construct a state transition diagram that shows the processes of composing an email from your Gmail. The main login page of the Gmail is the starting state of the state transition diagram and the ending state is the redirection to the main page after the logout action. Then, design THREE (3) test procedures (TP), which consist of ONE (1) main flow and only TWO (2) alternative flows.

(15 Marks)