

SOFT SKILLS 1

CRITICAL THINKING & PROBLEM SOLVING SKILLS (ACTIVITIES)

by Fatmawati Latada
CMLHS
fatma@ump.edu.my

Apply your skills

- A factory producing decorative pots continuously fail to meet its targeted output. A research done by its Human Resource unit suggested that workers tend to read the old newspapers which is meant to wrap the decorative pots.
- Using the Problem Solving steps, assist the factory to solve their problem without disrupting their operational costs for that particular year.

Apply your skills

- A large financial services company is in need of strategic planning to further direct the business in the face of competitive pressures and in the process of globalizing their operations into the world-wide market. Based on the current economic condition, what are the measures that need to be taken by the company to cope with the challenges and achieve their target.

Author Information

Fatmawati Latada, PhD, is a Senior Lecturer at Centre for Modern Languages & Human Sciences, Universiti Malaysia Pahang. She obtained her Bachelor of Human Sciences in Arabic Language & Literature and minors in Psychology from International Islamic University Malaysia and Master of Human Sciences and PhD degrees in Industrial and Organizational Psychology from the same university. E-mail: fatma@ump.edu.my