LEARNING ACTIVITY # 9

INDIVIDUAL TASK

An invitation to bid is to be advertised for a infrastructure project. The Contracts Manager is of the view to follow the Open Bidding process, to get as much competition as possible and therefore a better price for the contract. However, the Project Manager said that the Open Bidding process is too hectic and create extra burden on project team, so in his opinion it is better to go for direct contracting process. Justify your answer with reasons.

1. Who is correct - The Contract Manager or the Project Manager? Why?
2. Which procurement principle do you think this scenario relates to? Why?
